Sneha's Dinner hosted a farewell dinner for our going US school general Paul Perseus. Ad Singh put in an appearance as Paul did, and other guests watched the entertainment put up by Sneha's Dinner's troupe. Sneha herself sang One Moment in Time, did some of it to Paul. Arvind Singh dropped in with hubby Rishat Senar while Sandhya Shetty was greeted by Ad and Alia. Surin Pan and Dolly Tani included, even as Rakish and Arif Surindhar came to support the hosting organization, of which they're a part. Paul himself was gracious in accepting all the support, all he looks ahead to the future.

So long, farewell!

The news of the departure of the four members of the editorial board of the Bombay Times, who have been with the paper since its inception, is a sad one. They have been with the paper since its inception and have seen it grow from a small newspaper to a major one. They have been with the paper through the good and bad times and have seen it emerge as a leading newspaper in the city. Their departure is a great loss to the paper and to the city.
